FAQs:

Do I need to upload a poster online prior to the congress?

This will not be needed, we only ask for a printed poster, which you can hang on a poster board onsite at the designated poster area.

Will posters also be made available as ePosters?

Posters will not be made available online. Instead, the full abstract body will be published online in the Global (ES)GURS-ESAU24 resource centre, in the app and as an online supplement by Elsevier on European Urology Open Science. If you do not want your abstract published online, please send an e-mail to esgurs@congressconsultants.com.

Is there a printing service?

Unfortunately ESGURS does not have a printing service. We kindly ask to arrange for your own printing and to bring your poster to the congress.

Is there a template which I can use to prepare my poster?

There is not a template available, so you are free to prepare your own poster.

How do I find my posterboard onsite?

All posterboards can be found in the designated poster area, and will be labelled with your Poster Number. Please note that this number is different from your initial Abstract ID and can be found on the Outcome page via <https://abstracts.uroweb.org/>.
